

Canadian Association for Refugee and Forced Migration Studies
Association Canadienne des Études sur les Réfugiés et la Migration Forcée

Invites submissions for its new

Working Paper Series

Our new CARFMS Working Paper Series is intended to help to realize the promotion and the support of excellence in research and the dissemination of refugee and forced migration knowledge.

Papers will only be considered if they have not been published previously and preference will be given to papers that take creative and innovative approaches to the contemporary issues and concerns in the field of refugee and forced migration studies.

Papers can be submitted in English or French.

CARFMS
ACERMF

Please visit our webpage for further information and details on the submission process:

<http://carfms.org/working-paper-series/>